JUNIOR CLASS

November 1960! Who will be the next president? All over the United States Republicans and Democrats alike were engulfed in an atmosphere of political frenzy. We Lehmanites also found ourselves in the midst of all this excitement. Remember how we rushed around those last days before the mock election registering voters, making posters, preparing speeches, and learning cheers and chants? And remember the wild spirit shown by both parties at the campaign assembly? Yes, election year was busy and exciting at Lehman.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

CLASS OFFICERS—Bob Shealor, president; Fern Sperling, treasurer; Sandy Vaprin, vice-president; Judy Willis, secretary.

With traditional Eskie spirit we sophomores did our share, bringing in gifts for the underprivileged people of Canton. We could be seen, bundled up in winter clothing, tramping up and down icy streets collecting gifts, and even robbing our younger brothers and sisters of their favorite toys. Sending Lehman over the goal by helping to bring in a total of 9716 gifts was reward enough for our efforts.

"V-I-C-T-O-R-Y is the freshman battle cry!" Remember how feeble we sounded when we first attempted this new cheer? But soon our cheering improved as we began to feel at home in our new school. Remember how excited we were at the first football and basketball games sitting on those hard bleachers, cheering until we were hoarse? What fun we had at Canteen after the games eating donuts, dancing, and socializing! How we loved our first year at Lehman!

In Memoriam

In memory of Thomas Hohn, we dedicate this page to a sincere and much-loved student. Although Tom was only a freshman, his willingness to work, his cheerful disposition, and his inquisitive mind singled him out as an outstanding new addition to Lehman High School.

In memory of Marion Cuddy we dedicate this page to a faithful, patient, and unassuming girl. Marion went about her work in a quiet way; thus few people knew her well. To those who were close to Marion, she offered faithful and steadfast friendship.

Aspiration

We improve ourselves by aspiring to the goals set by upperclassmen.

The pause that refreshes . . .

Three years have passed and now we are seniors. This is our most exciting year for with it come Class Day, Baccalaureate, and Graduation. From this our final year, we shall recall such things as taking college board exams and filling out college application forms. We shall never forget the last football and basketball games at which we occupied the coveted front row seats. We shall also remember the tapping of the Football Queen and the tapping of National Honor members. As we glance at our past experiences, we are sure always to cherish the fun we had as well as our increased responsibilities as seniors.

Linda Orgel introduces the next speaker.

The Senior Class Officers: Jim Gordon, president, Steve Duerr, vice-president, Lee Lavery, treasurer, and Karen Rossetti, secretary, discuss plans for Graduation with Mr. Watts.

Dear Eskies,

For the last time this year we call on you to show that famous Lehman spirit. On the next pages you will see listed the names of Lehman backers without whose financial help this book would have been impossible.

We ask you to check over the names of these friends carefully and to show your loyalty to them by giving these business and professional people your patronage at every opportunity.

Sincerely,
The Polaris Staff
